GLOBAL CORPORATE CODE OF ETHICS & PUBLIC CONDUCT

SECTION 1: PURPOSE & PUBLIC APPLICATION

This Global Corporate Code of Ethics establishes ethical principles applicable to all representatives, contractors, and partners of the Corporation. As a publicly filed policy, this document is accessible to external stakeholders, regulators, and the general public.

SECTION 2: GIFTS, HOSPITALITY & MEALS

Employees may not accept gifts, entertainment, or meals from suppliers or third parties with an individual value exceeding fifty dollars ($50.00 USD). Any promotional or courtesy item exceeding this amount must be reported to the Compliance Office within five (5) business days.

SECTION 3: PUBLIC DISCLOSURE & MEDIA INQUIRIES

Only designated Corporate Communications officers may speak on behalf of the company to news outlets, journalists, or public investors. Unauthorized employees are strictly prohibited from issuing public statements regarding corporate matters or active legal proceedings.

SECTION 4: WHISTLEBLOWER INTEGRITY HOTLINE

A dedicated third-party reporting hotline is available 24/7 for anonymous reporting of accounting irregularities or statutory violations. The Corporation strictly prohibits retaliation of any kind against whistleblowers making reports in good faith.
